

PROMOTING BRITISH VALUES AT SURFLEET PRIMARY SCHOOL

The Department for Education have stated that there is a need “to create and enforce a clear and rigorous expectation on all schools to promote the fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.”

At Surfleet Primary School, these values are reinforced regularly and in the following ways:

DEMOCRACY

- Each year every class produces individual class rules, showing how we respect our rights.
- Election of JPCSOs, JRSOs
- Election of school council.
- Sports Ambassadors
- Pupil surveys
- Year 5/6 children apply for positions of responsibility.
- Class 3 residential to Kingswood

INDIVIDUAL RESPONSIBILITY AND LIBERTY

- Responsibility for own belongings.
- Homework.
- Reading diary responsibility.
- Home/school agreement.
- School club participation.
- Walking around local area – school visits/church.
- Educational visits.
- School uniform.
- PHSE curriculum.
- Sparkling Starts and Fabulous Finishes
- School Productions
- Parent information evenings

RULE OF LAW

We have started our journey to become a Unicef Rights Respecting Award school

- A consistent behaviour policy is employed across the school.

- PCSO assemblies and community links (road safety, stranger danger)/fire safety/e-safety talks.
- Parental questionnaires.
- Sports code of conduct adhered to during events.
- SMSC and SEAL curriculum followed.
- Bikeability
- Esafety- learning how to behave in a digital world.

MUTUAL RESPECT

- Competitive sports links – House competitions/interschool events.
- PSHE curriculum.
- RE curriculum.
- Paired class work.
- Fund raising events e.g. Children in Need, RND, UNICEF.
- Collective Worship.
- Visitors to Collective Worship
- Church services
- Parent helpers.
- Adults model respectful behaviour.
- School behaviour policy.
- Celebration of National events.
- Curriculum information evenings.
- Parent and Pupil consultation evenings.

KNOWLEDGE OF OTHER FAITHS AND BELIEFS

- Visitors to school from different faiths and cultures
- Whole school theme events
- Supporting charities–Harvest food boxes.
- Multicultural stories, toys, music.
- Geography curriculum.
- Links with local churches – Harvest, Easter and Christmas services.
- Daily collective worship.

We offer a culturally diverse curriculum, in which all major religions are studied and respected. Through the teaching of The National Curriculum, PSHE and our daily school life, we aim to demonstrate tolerance and to assist students in becoming knowledgeable, curious, and understanding citizens who can help to build a better Britain for the future.
